The Essence of Teamwork

Teamwork means that we share a common ideal and embrace a common goal. Regardless of our differences, we strive shoulder to shoulder, confident in one another’s faith, trust and commitment. In the end, teamwork can be summed up in five short words...

“We believe in each other.”

Quote

“If a man empties his purse into his head, no man can take it away from him. An investment in knowledge always pays the best interest.”
 Benjamin Franklin
 American Writer, Ambassador, Inventor and a Freemason

FROM THE EAST

I just returned from the 181st Grand Communication of the Grand Lodge of Florida. The Junior and Senior Wardens and I were in attendance four days and voted for our Lodge. We felt that we represented the views of our Lodge in our votes. R.:W.: Ed Street and W.: Bill Garrett, Jr. were also in attendance. R.:W.: Alan S. Rosenthal was installed Wednesday, June 2nd as the DDGM of our District. God Bless all of you, our Lodge and this great country of ours.

Upon the Square,
 Thomas W. McVeigh
 Worshipful Master

FROM THE WEST

Brethren,
 Once again it was an honor for me to attend the annual Grand Lodge Communication in Orlando as one of your delegates. Grand Lodge opened on Monday, May 31, and closed on Wednesday, June 2nd. There were 1,394 Brothers in attendance. The three principal officers of our Lodge were present along with the Treasurer and our DDGM. A new Most Worshipful Grand Master was elected and several pieces of legislation were passed. Our new Grand Master is M.:W.: J. Dick Martinez. R.:W.: Danny Griffith was elected Junior Grand Warden. The Grand Secretary, M.:W.: Richard E. Lynn, PGM and the Grand Treasurer, M.:W.: Elmer G. Coffman, PGM were re-elected.

Masonic Education will be stressed again this year by our Grand Master. I will continue providing Masonic Education at each of our Stated Communications utilizing the Grand Lodge Master Mason Exams 1, 2, and 3 until we see what new educational materials come along.

I look forward to seeing you in Lodge. Please come if you are able.

On the Level,
 Ronald B. Watson
 Senior Warden

Man's Accountability to God

"What is the greatest concept which has ever entered your mind?" Daniel Webster was once asked. He thought for a while and made his reply. "Man's accountability to God." A moment of thought will show that his answer was predicated on a belief in God, belief in moral law in the universe, man's free will and man's freedom of choice. No answer that Webster could have given to that question could possibly been more truly Masonic. Has man out grown God? The atheist would escape accountability by denying even God's existence, but for every professing or avowed atheist there are 100's practicing atheists, those that just ignore God, who just leave Him out of all reckoning. Others simply won't link God with accountability. They would escape accountability at any cost, even of self delusion.

The declared foundation of our Order is the practice of social and moral virtue. That can be achieved only by the most exacting self-discipline. We, as Masons, seek and condone no new morality. We seek rather a renewed morality. Man's highest role is to be a servant of God. Our own experience teaches us that God is not changeable but constant, not a despot but our Father, not unconcerned but a present help in time of trouble, not weak but powerful, not dead but living and the source of all light and life.
